

Training on “Management of Sessions Trial and Appreciation of Evidence” inaugurated at FJA

Director General of the Academy highlights importance of a positive attitude and effective performance

The Federal Judicial Academy organized an opening ceremony of the training course on the topic of “Management of Sessions Trial and Appreciation of Evidence” for Additional District and Sessions Judges and officers of the Judge Advocate General (JAG) Branch from Pakistan Air Force at the Academy on November 13, 2017.

After the welcome and opening remarks by Mr. Fakhar Hayat, Director General of the Academy, the trainees were sensitized about the importance and scope of various topics and subjects incorporated in the training course.

Director General stated that, “This weeklong training course has been designed to be practical with exercises to provide skills, encourage participation and exchange information.”

With regard to the importance of a positive attitude and effective performance, Mr. Fakhar Hayat underlined that punctuality, positive attitude and effective performance play a critical role to dilute and deal with adverse propaganda.

“We should always strive to provide the quality justice to the litigant public,” he remarked.

Twenty four Additional District and Sessions Judges from across Pakistan, Azad Jammu and Gilgit-Baltistan and four officers of the Pakistan Air Force are attending this weeklong training course at the Academy.
