

Certificate Awarding Ceremony of a Weeklong Training Course

Capacity Building Trainings Make a Difference in performance: Sardar

Liaqat Hussain, Registrar, High Court of Azad Jammu & Kashmir

Islamabad: A certificate awarding ceremony of a one-week training was held at the Federal Judicial Academy on March 17, 2018. Sardar Liaqat Hussain, Registrar, High Court of Azad Jammu & Kashmir, was the Chief Guest at the ceremony.

Sardar Liaqat appreciated the efforts of Federal Judicial Academy in building the capacity of judicial officers and other stakeholders of administration of justice system.

“These trainings are essential for capacity building of our judicial officers particularly in the areas of new laws and I have great admiration for the emphasis the Academy places on life-long learning, research and development and also professional excellence amongst our judges and other related to justice sector,” he remarked

While congratulating the participants, he advised them that, “It is not enough to simply try and get by in life. We must strive to excel in everything we do—excellence in every task, large or small. We must always be prepared to deal with the contemporary professional challenges effectively”.

Quoting Socrates, Judge Sardar Liaqat Hussain said, “Four things belong to a judge: to hear courteously, to answer wisely, to consider soberly, and to decide impartially”.

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Fakhar Hayat, DG of the Academy, in his welcome address stated that, “We are always seeking to host training courses in line with the Academy’s Annual Judicial Academic Calendar to enhance the skills of judicial officers, among others as per our mandate, so that they should improve the quality of their performance and work.”

Twenty four Civil Judges-cum- Magistrates hailing from all over Pakistan, Azad Jammu and Kashmir and Gilgit-Baltistan were trained in New Laws.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, certificates were awarded to the participants by the Chief Guest, Sardar Liaqat Hussain.
