Leadership and Management Course for District and Sessions Judges gets under way at FJA

Our courts need dynamic leaders: Director General, Federal Judicial Academy

Islamabad: A six-day training course on “Leadership and Management” for District and Sessions Judges was formally inaugurated at the Federal Judicial Academy (FJA) on Monday.

While addressing the participants, Director General of the Academy, Mr. Hayat Ali Shah stated that, “Our courts need strong leaders. This is the second batch for training on the same subject “Leadership and Management.” After extensive consultations, soul – searching and feedback from the previous batch participants, this six days training program has been designed to enhance your leadership and management skills.”

He further said that being senior judicial officers they do not need any training in law but due to changed scenario every District Judge has to act as a leader in his district and he has to know many things about other institutions to further the case of justice delivery.

This unique, six days training course focuses on the key facets of leadership and management and provides participants with the opportunity to challenge themselves in a dynamic learning environment.

The program is facilitated by the FJA faculty members who are at the forefront of thought leadership and practice. In addition, twenty five participants will be exposed to prominent guest speakers/ resource persons who are leading scholars, academics, experts in the field of management and experienced practitioners.

Topics in this course include, “Understanding Challenges at the Workplace”, “Critical Thinking”, “Emotional Intelligence”, “Stress Management”, “Team Building through Engagement”, “Management Communication Skills”, “Deontology-The Judges Perspective”, among others.

Each day will involve lectures, interspersed with syndicate discussion, group presentation, individual command tasks, etc.

This training course also features many opportunities for networking, socialization and engagement with faculty and other experts such as Work Planning, Academy Night and Special Dinner.
