Respected Sir, Confession is an important piece of evidence in criminal cases but it has been observed that in most of cases, this important piece of evidence becomes useless due to illegalities and irregularities committed by Magistrate. In my humble opinion there should be a separate lecture on this chapter for Magistrates. All the procedural illegalities and irregularities be pointed out to Magistrates in light of the precedents of Superior Courts. Similarly uniform questionnaire for confession may be devised and circulated to all Magistrates. Regards. Akbar Ali Civil Judge Tangi
Sabee ul Hassan Syed [sabeeshah@gmail.com] 15.9.2018	Dear sir: Thankyou so much for giving us this opportunity. Really a great honour for us. I did my pre-service training at this academy back in 2015 when I joined Islamabad High court Judicial service. This time literally felt the difference in the manner the lectures were delivered. The speakers made us to actively participate which not only involved us in the topic but also enabled us to share our own experiences and learn from the experience of our speakers. This method helped us to get our concept cleared. I wish we had more time here for lectures. Looking forward to more such great workshops and trainings. Once again thank you sir.
