

Professional Exchange Programme”

ASPs training concludes at FJA

Qazi Jamil-ur-Rehman, Inspector General of Police, ICT, Islamabad asks ASPs to distinguish themselves in the performance

Islamabad: A certificate awarding ceremony was arranged at the conclusion of the first-ever “Professional Exchange Programme” for Assistant Superintendents of Police at the Federal Judicial Academy, Islamabad, on January 30, 2021 in which Qazi Jami-ur-Rehman, Inspector General of Police, ICT, Islamabad, was the Chief Guest.

While addressing the trainees, he said, “With this first-ever training at the Academy, the newly –recruited ASPs would have been able to learn skills and knowledge from the learned faculty members, among others, to give their best in the line of duty. I am optimistic that this weeklong training at the FJA would have trained and molded our newly –recruited ASPs to become morally upright, disciplined, fit and competent. For this, I am grateful to the FJA that arranged this first ever Professional Exchange Programme.”

“It is the need of the hour that Federal Judicial Academy and National Police Academy should integrate and enhance the scope of this Professional Exchange Programme for more this like trainings in the future,” the IGP, ICT, maintained.

Advising the young Police Officers, the IGP, ICT, Islamabad said, “Always try to distinguish themselves clearly above your colleagues in the performance.”

DG of the Academy, Mr. Hayat Ali Shah, presented an overview of this weeklong Professional Exchange Programme.

In the end, the eighteen trainee ASPs were awarded certificates by the Chief Guest in the certificate awarding ceremony at the Academy.
